“A New View” exhibit has been extended one week! This week, ending Nov. 7, is your last chance to see the fantastic premiere exhibit at our new Gallery on the 2nd floor of the Gorton Community Center.

Earthy and Opulent

Visit the Deer Path Art League Gallery often during this six week exhibit to view the spectacular artwork by our featured artists and experience the happenings in our beautiful space.

Also, consider the Gallery a destination for your holiday shopping- we have several additional artists showcased in our newly opened Gift Gallery. The Gift Gallery will provide a wide range of unique items such as paper products, ornaments, and jewelry at all price points.

Featuring:

Joanna Alot: Hand painted silks and velvet brocades presented in luxurious scarves, jackets, capes and ties

Ben Bates: Ceramic pieces that are interesting in form with warm texture and color

Robert Banaszak: Incredible photographic images of the sky

Julie Trotter Clark: Unique precious and semiprecious jewelry created in the most fabulous one of a kind fashion

Theresa Morton: Pumpkin still life depictions created by a local artist in oils on canvas

Ana Petercic: Wearable fiber showcasing bold color and design painted on silk

Ivan Sagel: Contemporary jewelry by Chicago artist who works with precious metals and gemstones

Gary Wick: Rich, lush landscapes created with pastels

“Earthy and Opulent” will have a wine and cheese opening reception on Friday, November 14, 2008. Everyone is welcome! In addition to the opening, this exhibit can be seen November 14, 2008- January 2, 2009 during Gallery hours, Monday-Friday, 10-4 pm.

Art Fair on the Square 2009

Remember that applications for the 2009 Art Fair are already available! Artists can apply online at www.zapplication.org.

Please contact the Deer Path Art League for any questions.

Keep an eye out for the new Winter Class Brochure. Classes and Workshops will begin January 12, 2009.

Also, stop by Lake Forest High School's West Campus (Rm #118) on Monday mornings to visit our new Weaving Classroom.

“The Deer Path Art League strives to spark, nurture and enhance creativity as well as raise awareness and appreciation of the arts in the community”
