September 4th & 5th Art Fair on the Square

The 57th Annual Art Fair on the Square, Sunday September 4th from 11-6pm & Monday September 5th from 10-5pm! Art Fair on the Square is the Deer Path Art League's signature event and helps the League fulfill its mission to bring high-quality visual arts to the community. Featuring 181 artists nation wide in a verity of different mediums such as ceramics, digital art, drawing/pastels, fiber, glass, graphics/printmaking, jewelry, metal, mix media, painting, photography, sculpture & wood. Artists are selected through a juried process after reviewing submitted images of their art. Please join us in downtown Lake Forest Market Square for this fabulous event in supporting the arts.

September 14th Beginning of Fall Classes

The Deer Path Art League offers a variety of multi-media classes and workshops in the Fine Arts Center on the 2nd level at Lake Forest's Gorton Community Center, 400 E. Illinois Road. Fiber classes and workshops are held at the Lake Forest High School's West Campus 300 S. Waukegan Rd, rm 118, Lake Forest. Teachers share their creativity, experience and talent by offering expert instruction in state-of-the-art classrooms with free parking and easy access by elevator or stairs. The Deer Path Art League, a not-for-profit organization, continues to subsidize these classes making them the most affordable instruction in our area without sacrificing quality. For class listings please visit our website at www.deerpathartleague.org.
